

All Creation Gives Praise:

Laudato Si;*

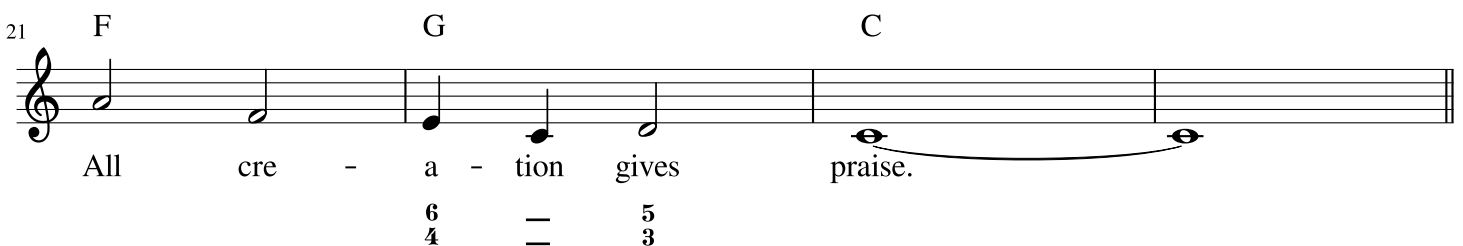

By: Peter McLoughlin

Arr: Richard Evans

♩ = 220

To Coda
after last verse

* Laudato Si' Mi' Signore (Praise be to you, my Lord) is the refrain of St. Francis' Canticle of the Creatures, written in 1224;
and Pope Francis's Encyclical, Laudato Si', begins with this quote.
This hymn is inspired by the Canticle.

VERSE

25 F G G7 C

1. Bro - ther Sun and Sis - ter Moon,
 2. Air and Wind and Wea - ther,
 3. Earth whose fruits and flow - ers
 4. We find gifts like fi(re) - re,
 5. Those who choose for - give - ness

29 F G F C

Lum - i - nous and shin(e) - ing,
 Breath of life ar - ound us,
 Nour - ish and de - light us,
 Heat and light and pow - er,
 Help us see your glor - y,

33 F G7 Cmaj7 Fmaj7

Day through night.
 Wa - ter, pure.
 Grace of of days.
 Fire of Love,
 Shine through life,

37 F G C

Sis - ters, bro - thers are we.
 Sis - ters, bro - thers are we.
 Sis - ters, bro - thers are we.
 Sis - ters, bro - thers are we.
 Sis - ters, bro - thers are we.

⌋ CODA

$\frac{6}{4}$ — $\frac{5}{3}$

41 F G C *(A-)

All cre - a - tion gives praise.

$\frac{6}{4}$ — $\frac{5}{3}$

*only play A-to cue last four measures

45 F G C

All cre - a - tion gives praise.

$\frac{6}{4}$ — $\frac{5}{3}$